

Welcome to Sixth Grade ELA

Dear 6th Graders and Parents,

Summer means sun and fun, biking and hiking, picnics and
RELAXING WITH A GOOD BOOK!!!

Students entering 6th grade are asked to read: 6A: The Egypt Game by Zilpha Keatley Snyder and 6G: Bystander by James Preller. After reading the novel, 6th graders are asked to complete the given exam/writing project. This will be collected and graded during the first week of school and will count towards their first quarter ELA grade.

Please encourage your child to read for a minimum of thirty minutes per day. Have a wonderful summer! I look forward to getting to know your child in September.

Sincerely,

Rose Scozzari

Section 2: Projects

Choose ONE of the given choices.

1. Board Game: Design a board game to test fellow classmates' comprehension of the novel. Your game should include major plot points in your game. Think carefully about the look of the board and the rules for your game. Be creative! You may base your game off of an existing board game. Your game should include a written/typed set of rules, game pieces, and a board. We will play your game during class.
2. Map Making: Create a detailed and labeled map of "Egypt". Use context clues from the book as well as inferences from the story in order to help you make the map. Your map should be neatly colored in and well labeled.
